School Inspection Update

- Early days for the new inspection arrangements
- New short inspections being well received
- Main focus on the progress of current pupils but historic data still has a role to play in identifying areas for enquiry
- Do not expect to see any specific frequency, type or volume of marking. School decision through assessment policy.
- Evaluation of PE and Sport premium as well as Pupil Premium (statement on website on how spent and impact)

Inspection arrangements in new schools

- New schools, academy converters, schools which have undergone change (amalgamation, adding a key stage)
- First inspection of a new school will normally be in its third year of operation
- Academy converter, predecessor was judged good will receive short one day inspection
- School judged good in last inspection but undergone significant change will have a section 5 (two-day) inspection

Governance

- Updated Governance Handbook published by DfE in November 2015
- Section 6.4 outlines Children with SEND and Governing Body responsibilities
- Ofsted will refer to guidance when judging governance in school
- Ensure your SEN Information Report has been reviewed and easily accessible on your school website

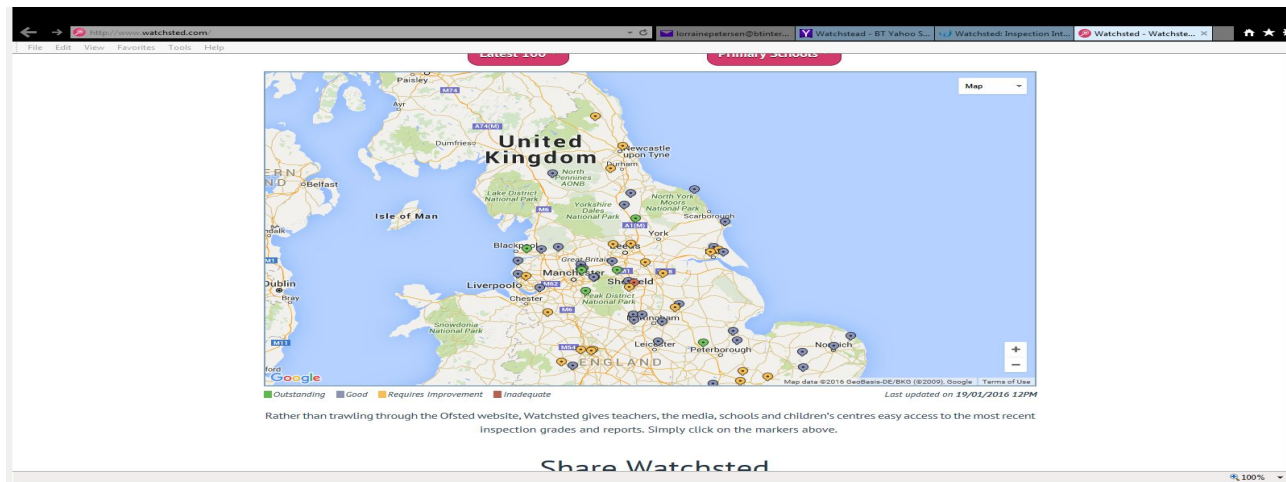

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/governance-handbook>

Don't forget...

- Ofsted and CQC will commence LA inspections on the implementation of SEN reforms starting in May this year
- They will visit early years settings, schools and post 16 providers as part of the inspection process
- Need to ensure that you have the evidence and paperwork for transfers from statements to EHCPs and new EHC Needs assessment referrals.

Watchstead

- New website that allows you to search for Ofsted reports
- Search by latest 100, local authority or postcode
- Search by establishment types
- Each school colour coded on map to depict outstanding, good, requires improvement or inadequate
