

Testimonials

"A speech and language therapist is working alongside staff to develop appropriate communication plans for pupils and develop staff skills. Speaking, picture cues, symbols, and a range of signing are used by staff to encourage pupils to communicate."

The Shires at Stretton - OFSTED report 2006

I would fully recommend I.T.S. as firstly we found that Sarah is always there for you at the other end of the phone, no matter how big or small the problem is she always makes you feel very reassured. We have found that Sarah has always been very understanding and obliging to our own personal needs. Secondly I feel that the therapist coming to the home has made Owen feel more at ease and has hence made a more relaxed teaching learning environment. Thirdly the therapist is also understanding to both ours and Owen's needs and is very good at structuring Owen's lessons to get the most from him. All in all we are very pleased with his progress and feel that I.T.S. offers a very professional service but at a very personal level.

Richard Wardle (February 2008)

"The speech and language therapist provides substantial assessment of these pupils' learning needs which leads to sharply focussed targets."

The Regard Partnership - Holbeach OFSTED report 2006.

Quality Assurance

I.T.S have an excellent track record, which has enabled us to deliver contracted therapy into education and social care settings, such as The Regard Partnership and The Shires at Stretton. We have been delivering therapy within the local PCT areas including Leicestershire, Nottinghamshire, Lincolnshire and Birmingham.

Quality assurance and accountability is central to our work, therefore we provide excellent mentoring systems, and regular performance monitoring. I.T.S. therapists each hold professional liability insurance.

Purchasing I.T.S. services

We recognise that Independent organisations such as I.T.S can offer Commissioners, Practiced based Commissioning and PCTs flexible solutions, which complement existing NHS/Local Authority service provision. We are frequently approached by Independent and statutory education and care settings to provide individualised therapy support packages, much needed by their clients.

All I.T.S. therapists have NHS experience, enabling them to work collaboratively with our NHS colleagues, to offer high quality and personalised support through;

- Spot purchasing arrangements
- Contracted individualised therapy packages
- Patients can also purchase services from I.T.S. directly

We hold such confidence in our service delivery that we will offer you a free of charge trial session with a patient or setting of your choice. We would welcome the opportunity to demonstrate how you would come to value our professional support to meet your patients/settings needs.

Costs

Patients can purchase therapy directly from I.T.S. at £75.00 per hour. We have flexible rates for GP and PCT contracts as well as to contracted education and care settings. Our therapy support can offer you a reliable, cost effective and immediate solution in providing speech and language therapy support to your patients/settings.
