

- What do you think is happening in this photograph?
- Have you ever been in a situation like this?
- What do you think this person is feeling like?

Encourage the children to say as many words as they can. Add the focus word and other relevant words.

- Have you ever felt like that?
- When have you felt like that?

(This is an opportunity to reinforce the idea that not everyone will have the same feelings in the same situations.)

- If you feel like that what would your:
 - face look like? (encourage them to show you either by modelling it or by drawing)
 - body look like?
- If you are feeling like this what might you do?
- If you are feeling like this how does your body feel like on the inside?
- Can you think of any other words that might describe the feeling?
- What do you think a person who felt like that would do?

To summarise your thinking you might agree a definition of the feeling and display it.

worried

- What do you think is happening in this photograph?
- Have you ever been in a situation like this?
- What do you think this person is feeling like?

Encourage the children to say as many words as they can. Add the focus word and other relevant words.

- Have you ever felt like that?
- When have you felt like that?

(This is an opportunity to reinforce the idea that not everyone will have the same feelings in the same situations.)

- If you feel like that what would you:
 - face look like? (encourage them to show you either by modelling it or by drawing)
 - body look like?
- If you are feeling like this what might you do?
- If you are feeling like this how does your body feel like on the inside?
- Can you think of any other words that might describe the feeling?
- What do you think a person who felt like that would do?

To summarise your thinking you might agree a definition of the feeling and display it.

empathy

- What do you think is happening in this photograph?
- Have you ever been in a situation like this?
- What do you think this person is feeling like?

Encourage the children to say as many words as they can. Add the focus word and other relevant words.

- Have you ever felt like that?
- When have you felt like that?

(This is an opportunity to reinforce the idea that not everyone will have the same feelings in the same situations.)

- If you feel like that what would your:
 - face look like? (encourage them to show you either by modelling it or by drawing)
 - body look like?
- If you are feeling like this what might you do?
- If you are feeling like this how does your body feel like on the inside?
- Can you think of any other words that might describe the feeling?
- What do you think a person who felt like that would do?

To summarise your thinking you might agree a definition of ing?

- What do you think is happening in this photograph?
- Have you ever been in a situation like this?
- What do you think this person is feeling like?

Encourage the children to say as many words as they can. Add the focus word and other relevant words.

- Have you ever felt like that?
- When have you felt like that?

(This is an opportunity to reinforce the idea that not everyone will have the same feelings in the same situations.)

- If you feel like that what would you:
 - face look like? (encourage them to show you either by modelling it or by drawing)
 - body look like?
- If you are feeling like this what might you do?
- If you are feeling like this how does your body feel like on the inside?
- Can you think of any other words that might describe the feeling?
- What do you think a person who felt like that would do?

To summarise your thinking you might agree a definition of the feeling and display it.

confused

- What do you think is happening in this photograph?
- Have you ever been in a situation like this?
- What do you think this person is feeling like?

Encourage the children to say as many words as they can. Add the focus word and other relevant words.

- Have you ever felt like that?
- When have you felt like that?

(This is an opportunity to reinforce the idea that not everyone will have the same feelings in the same situations.)

- If you feel like that what would you:
 - face look like? (encourage them to show you either by modelling it or by drawing)
 - body look like?
- If you are feeling like this what might you do?
- If you are feeling like this how does your body feel like on the inside?
- Can you think of any other words that might describe the feeling?
- What do you think a person who felt like that would do?

To summarise your thinking you might agree a definition of the feeling and display it.

friendly, happy

- What do you think is happening in this photograph?
- Have you ever been in a situation like this?
- What do you think this person is feeling like?

Encourage the children to say as many words as they can. Add the focus word and other relevant words.

- Have you ever felt like that?
- When have you felt like that?

(This is an opportunity to reinforce the idea that not everyone will have the same feelings in the same situations.)

- If you feel like that what would your:
 - face look like? (encourage them to show you either by modelling it or by drawing)
 - body look like?
- If you are feeling like this what might you do?
- If you are feeling like this how does your body feel like on the inside?
- Can you think of any other words that might describe the feeling?
- What do you think a person who felt like that would do?

To summarise your thinking you might agree a definition of the feeling and display it.

bored

- What do you think is happening in this photograph?
- Have you ever been in a situation like this?
- What do you think this person is feeling like?

Encourage the children to say as many words as they can. Add the focus word and other relevant words.

- Have you ever felt like that?
- When have you felt like that?

(This is an opportunity to reinforce the idea that not everyone will have the same feelings in the same situations.)

- If you feel like that what would you:
 - face look like? (encourage them to show you either by modelling it or by drawing)
 - body look like?
- If you are feeling like this what might you do?
- If you are feeling like this how does your body feel like on the inside?
- Can you think of any other words that might describe the feeling?
- What do you think a person who felt like that would do?

- What do you think is happening in this photograph?
- Have you ever been in a situation like this?
- What do you think this person is feeling like?

Encourage the children to say as many words as they can. Add the focus word and other relevant words.

- Have you ever felt like that?
- When have you felt like that?

(This is an opportunity to reinforce the idea that not everyone will have the same feelings in the same situations.)

- If you feel like that what would your:
 - face look like? (encourage them to show you either by modelling it or by drawing)
 - body look like?
- If you are feeling like this what might you do?
- If you are feeling like this how does your body feel like on the inside?
- Can you think of any other words that might describe the feeling?
- What do you think a person who felt like that would do?

To summarise your thinking you might agree a definition of the feeling and display it.

confused, puzzled

- What do you think is happening in this photograph?
- Have you ever been in a situation like this?
- What do you think this person is feeling like?

Encourage the children to say as many words as they can. Add the focus word and other relevant words.

- Have you ever felt like that?
- When have you felt like that?

(This is an opportunity to reinforce the idea that not everyone will have the same feelings in the same situations.)

- If you feel like that what would your:
 - face look like? (encourage them to show you either by modelling it or by drawing)
 - body look like?
- If you are feeling like this what might you do?
- If you are feeling like this how does your body feel like on the inside?
- Can you think of any other words that might describe the feeling?
- What do you think a person who felt like that would do?

To summarise your thinking you might agree a definition of the feeling and display it.

confused, puzzled