

First Sentences

Entertaining lotto games to model early sentences.

When children take that massive leap from single words to using their first sentences they need help and encouragement to use their new found skill. These simple lotto games model and encourage: singular and plural, position words, big and little and colours.