

Cut out each key fob, fold along the solid line and stick the two halves together. Laminate each fob and punch a hole at one end. The fobs can be attached to a key ring which the child can keep in his/her pocket, or alternatively the fobs can be threaded onto a treasury tag which can be attached to the child's pencil case.

